THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. In the middle of October CHANG Yun-i, commander of the Kwangsi Military District Command, established the Foreign Languages Training Center at Manning as directed by the Southwest Military Area Command. LI T'ien-yu (李天裕), the deputy commander of the Kwangsi Military District Command, is the head of the new center.
2. The training period lasts for three months, and the curriculum includes English, Siamese, Burmese, Malay, and Annamese, as well as courses on intelligence collection methods and Communist propaganda techniques. There are 310 trainees now enrolled at the Foreign Languages Training Center. They will be sent to areas of Southeast Asia to engage in pro-Communist activity upon completion of their training.

- 25X1 1. Comment. A foreign language academy, established several months prior to the Foreign Languages Training Center, also trains Communist agents for areas in Southeast Asia, according to           .
